Thank you for contacting the U.S. Department of Energy's Office of Inspector General Hotline. This serves to acknowledge receipt of your message. The Hotline facilitates the reporting of allegations of fraud, waste, or abuse concerning Department of Energy programs and/or operations. You may obtain additional information regarding the Hotline at <http://energy.gov/ig/services>. The "Complaint Processing" section explains the actions the Office of Inspector General may take regarding your complaint.

Please note that your complaint to the Office of Inspector General does not preclude you from pursuing other remedies that may be available to you.

You may request an update on the status of your complaint by contacting the Hotline.
