SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON UNEMPLOYMENT LAW PROJECT, et al. Petitioners, v. SUZAN LEVINE, COMMISSIONER FOR THE WASHINGTON STATE EMPLOYMENT SECURITY DEPARTMENT, Respondent. DECLARATION OF MCKEEZI TAYLOR BARRAZA

THE SHERIDAN LAW FIRM, P.S.

John P. Sheridan, WSBA #21473 Mark W. Rose, WSBA #41916 Andra Kranzler, WSBA # 44098 Justin O. Abbasi, WSBA # 53582 Hoge Building, Suite 1200 705 Second Avenue Seattle, WA 98104 Attorneys for Plaintiffs

- I, McKeezi Taylor Barraza, make the following statement based on personal knowledge.
 - 1. I am 33 years old and reside in West Seattle, WA.
- 2. On March 15th, 2020 my Employer (Japonessa Seattle, LLC) issued a notice to its employees stating that they will be laying everyone off until further notice due to COVID-19, encouraging each of us to apply for unemployment benefits. The management went above and beyond by sitting down with each of us to help us apply. Exhibit 1 attached hereto is a true and correct copy of the email lay-off notice due to Covid-19.
- 3. After submitting my claim on March 15th, I was deemed ineligible due to not meeting the 680 hours required to receive benefits. When the Cares Act was passed by Congress, ESD published notification on their website that anyone who was previously ineligible would qualify for unemployment benefits as of April 8th and they would backdate pay to when we first applied. Exhibit 2 attached hereto as is a true and correct copy of the e-service 3/16/2020 email Ineligible Letter.
- 4. On April 8th, I resubmitted my claim for the Pandemic Unemployment Assistance relief that was issued by Congress in the Cares Act.

- 5. On April 18, I was approved for the pandemic unemployment assistance. Exhibit 3 is a true and correct copy of the 4/18/2020 Pandemic Assistance Aproval letter .Once approved, I was paid my regular unemployment benefits of $235 per week plus $600 per week only 4 of the 6 weeks in back payments. This payment was sent to me on April 20th, 2020 for the total amount of $2740. Exhibit 4 attached hereto is a true and correct copy of 4/20/2020 PUA Determination Approval Letter.
- 6. The two missing payments were pending and placed in adjudication. This matter had to do with sick pay that I claimed for one of these weeks. I submitted the required documentation, but still have yet to hear anything regarding those pending issues and it has been 6 weeks since those issues have been pending. Exhibit 5 is a true and correct copy of the of 4/22/2020 e-service email message.
- 7. After April 20th, I was paid every week in the amount of $835.
- 8. On May 16th, I received a notice telling me that I may have been overpaid and to explain why I was not overpaid with supporting documentation.
 - 9. This notice confused me because I had already been approved to receive benefits and sent in every piece of supporting documentation that was necessary (2019 tax return, notice of lay-off from employer, pay stubs, etc.).

- 10. I told them I was not overpaid and confused by what they were asking. I also told them I had already submitted everything to prove I was eligible for benefits.
- 11. After filing my claim for that week, I was paid 2 days later than I normally would have been paid. Typically, I file my weekly claim on Sunday and I am paid no later than Tuesday. The week of the 16th I was paid on a Thursday.
- 12. The week of May 23rd, I filed my claim and received payment on-time.
- 13. On May 24, I received a work search directive. Exhibit 6 5/24/2020 Work Search Directive.
- 14. On May 26th, I received an email late at night asking me to verify my identity with the ESD by June 1, 2020. Exhibit 7 is a true and correct copy of the Advice of Rights Web Identity Questions due by June 1, 2020.
- 15. When I attempted to upload the required social security card and WA Drivers License, an error message continued to pop up stating that I could not upload the documents.

- 16. I submitted the request with a follow up email with the included identification documents attached. The next day, I noticed my ID verification was pending and being adjudicated. I was worried because I had noticed on the Washington Employment Security Department Facebook page, there were hundreds of folks saying they haven't been paid after sending in their identification documents.
- 17. Some had been waiting with no pay for 3 weeks. When I went to file my weekly claim on May 31st, my claim never processed and I have not been paid.
- 18. After scrolling through hundreds of Facebook comments on the ESD page, I found an email address for the ESD manager Mari McGill and emailed her my concerns about the ID verification wait time as well as the lack of communication and transparency between ESD and the claimants.
- 19. I have not heard anything back from Mari McGill. I have spent days trying to contact ESD agents to provide information regarding my pending claims and issues, only to be left on hold for hours at a time and then hung-up on.
 - 20. On June 1st, I reached out to DSHS to see if I would be able to get financial help to pay my rent for this month. DSHS denied my request explaining that I was already receiving unemployment benefits. I told them that my claim was not processed this week and that they have been holding up claimants pay due to the ID verification issue for 2-3 weeks.

- 21. On June 2, 2020, ESD posted an update on the imposter fraud on its Facebook page. *See*https://www.facebook.com/WashingtonESD/. As of June 5, 2020, over 5,200 individual comments were submitted in response petitioning their government for answers.
- 22. I told them I was worried I would also not be paid for 2-3 weeks and that I had bills and rent to pay. They responded telling me that ESD told them they were only holding payment for 2 days.
- 23. On a scale of 1-10 my stress or fear is a 10 due to the fact that ESD has failed over and over again to implement procedures that are clear and consistent, and have handled my claim well below the standard of care that is required. The process has been an absolute nightmare.
- 24. This information was not true and inaccurate because there are hundreds of folks crying out on social media that they have not been paid for weeks due to the ID verification and they are unable to get a hold of an agent to give them information as to when they will expect payment.

25. All I ask the court to do in this matter is to request ESD to do their job by processing our claims in a timely manner (cannot hold pay longer than 7 days) and to be proactive in communicating with each of us and our pending issues.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

DATED this 5th day of June, 2020 in Seattle, Washington.

Christina Olson has posted an announcement:

Hi Everyone,

I am sure most of you have seen the announcement that bars and restaurants will be closing tomorrow through March 31st statewide.

We will not be opening tomorrow. We are discussing to go service and will update you when we have a plan in place.

We feel the best course of action is to temporarily lay off everyone so you will be eligible to apply for unemployment. I recommend opening an account as soon as possible as I am sure they are going to get a huge rush of applications. I will be in Bellevue from 11 to 3 tomorrow to help with any questions and Seattle from 4 to 8.

I will update you as soon as I have more info but just wanted to get the initial info out.

I am so sorry this is happening, I know it is incredibly difficult and stressful. Please know I am.here if you need anything Christina

Presentation of Benefit Rights

Your responsibilities as an unemployment claimant

Received: Monday, Mar 16, 2020 3:16:32 PM Subject: Your Benefit Rights and Responsibilities

You're responsible for understanding this important information.

Don't reply to this email! We won't receive it. If you have questions, log into eServices and go to your outbox to submit a question or call the claims center at 800-318-6022.

You're not eligible to receive benefits at this time because you didn't work at least 680 hours from 1/1/2019 to 12/31/2019.

However, you might be eligible in the future and you're still responsible for understanding the information below.

However, these amounts are only estimates. We'll review your information and send you a Statement of Benefits, Wages and Hours, which will show if you're eligible for a new claim. If you are, the statement will show you the weekly amount you're eligible for and the maximum amount you have available. Examine it carefully and let us know if you believe anything is incorrect.

Log in to eServices to change how you receive your benefits payments. You can choose to get them on a debit card or deposited directly into your bank account.

Once we gather more information about your separation from an employer, we'll let you know.

We might:

- Send you a questionnaire and might also ask to speak to you by phone.
- Send you and the employer a written decision after we gather all the information we need. The letter will tell you whether you're eligible to receive unemployment benefits.

You must:

• Start submitting weekly claims right away as instructed below under You must submit weekly claims. We can write a decision only if you have been submitting weekly claims!

We're sending you a questionnaire about: Able and available for work. We might also request to speak to you by phone.

After we gather information from you and any employers who might be involved, we'll send all of you our written decision. It will tell you whether you're eligible to receive unemployment benefits. You all have the right to appeal the decision if any of you disagree.

While you wait for our decision, keep submitting your weekly claims. We can write a decision only if you have been submitting your weekly claims!

You can use your eServices account at esd.wa.gov to:

- Manage and view your unemployment benefits.
- Submit weekly claims.
- Track your benefit payments.
- Update your address, phone and contact preferences.
- View your wage information.

You must submit weekly claims

For unemployment purposes, a week is Sunday through Saturday. For every week you want to receive benefits, you must:

- Submit a weekly claim.
- Look for work (unless we tell you otherwise).
- Report your gross earnings and number of hours worked, even if you have not been paid yet.

There are two ways to submit weekly claims:

- On eservices at esd.wa.gov. After a week ends, submit your weekly claim anytime between 12:01 a.m. Sunday and 11:59 p.m. Saturday. Find instructions online.
- By phone at 800 318 6022. After a week ends, submit your weekly claim anytime between 12:01 a.m. Sunday and 4 p.m. Friday. (Note: You have more time to submit if you use eServices!) The first time you submit by phone, we will ask you to set up your Personal Identification Number (PIN). Find instructions online.

You must submit weekly claims even if you are:

- Waiting to hear if you are eligible for benefits.
- Expecting wages and hours to be added to your claim.
- Appealing a denial of benefits.
- Claiming a waiting week.

Your waiting week

The first week you are eligible for benefits and submit a weekly claim is your waiting week. You will not receive benefits for that week, but you still have to submit a claim for it. Find more information online.

About standby

Standby means:

- You and your employer have set a date when you expect to return to work, and
- The Employment Security Department has approved your standby status.

We're currently deciding whether to approve your standby status. Wait to hear from us.

Your work search

If your standby status ends and you have not returned to full time work, you must do one of the following activities each week you submit a claim. You must:

- Contact at least three employers each and every week; or
- Go to your local WorkSource office and participate in three approved job search activities; or
- Complete a combined total of three employer contacts and job search activities.

We'll notify you about appointments you're required to attend, which count as job search activities. If you do not attend mandatory appointments, we might deny your unemployment benefits.

You must keep a written log of your job search activities. Read the Handbook for Unemployed Workers at esd.wa.gov/handbook to find out what to include in your job search log. We recommend you use the blank log at esd.wa.gov/job search log. You also can report your job search activities when you file your weekly claim via eServices at esd.wa.gov, but you still must keep a written log.

We can ask for your job search log at any time, and we might verify your activities by calling the employers you list.

Help with your job search

WorkSource offices provide employment and training services to unemployed workers. As an unemployment benefits applicant, you must register with WorkSource. We will likely do this for you, but we'll notify you if we can't.

Based on your address, we assigned you to the WorkSource office at 2531 RAINIER AVE S SEATTLE 981445328.

WorkSource works!

Visit your local WorkSource office for free help with your job search and information about training opportunities. Research shows that people who use WorkSource tend to find work faster and earn more money than people who do not. WorkSource offices are accessible to people with disabilities.

Read more about WorkSource services.

If we have questions about your eligibility

As you submit your weekly claims, we'll decide if you're eligible to receive unemployment benefits. If we have questions, we might need to contact you, your employers or others for more information.

If we have questions after we have started paying your benefits, we'll continue to pay you "conditionally" until we get the answers we need.

What's next?

We are sending you a notice called What's Next? It tells you more about job search requirements, how to complete your weekly claims and information about training programs.

The information also is available in the Handbook for Unemployed Workers or at your local WorkSource office.

If you have questions

Look for answers on our website at esd.wa.gov or call the claims center at 800 318 6022.

We provide upon request free services and aids to people with disabilities and to those who are not proficient in English.

Your rights and responsibilities as an unemployment claimant under the CARES Act.

You're responsible for understanding this important information.

Don't reply to this email! We won't receive it.

Received: Saturday, Apr 18, 2020 9:56:10 PM Subject: Your Benefit Rights and Responsibilities

Eligibility for PUA

You are eligible for PUA if you are unemployed, partially unemployed, unable or unavailable for work for one of the following reasons:

- You have received a COVID 19 diagnosis
- You are experiencing symptoms of COVID 19 and seeking a medical diagnosis
- An individual in your household has been diagnosed with COVID 19
- You are providing care for a family member or household member who has been diagnosed with COVID 19
- A child or other household member for which you have primary caregiving responsibilities is out of school, daycare, or other facility due to closure as a direct result of the COVID 19 public health emergency
- You cannot reach your place of employment because of quarantine imposed as a result of the COVID 19 public health emergency
- You are unable to reach your place of work because you have been advised by a health care provider to self quarantine due to concerns related to COVID 19
- You were scheduled to start a job but no longer have a job or are unable to reach the job as a direct result of the COVID 19 public health emergency
- You became the breadwinner or major support for a household because the head of household died as a direct result of COVID 19
- You had to guit as a direct result of COVID 19
- Your place of employment closed as a direct result of the COVID 19 public health emergency
- You are an independent contractor or self employed individual and your ability to do your work has been affected or your place of business closed as a direct result of the COVID 19 public health emergency

If you have questions, log-in to eServices and go to your outbox to submit a question or call the claims center at 800-318-6022.

How much you'll be paid

Your claim is based on all your work and earnings from 1/1/2019 to 12/31/2019. We estimate that you may be eligible to receive $235 each week during the period from 2/2/2020, to 12/26/2020.

We're sending you a Statement of Benefits, Wages and Hours, which will show you the hours and wages you or your employer(s) reported to us for that time period. Examine it carefully and let us know if you believe anything is incorrect.

If you were self employed, your self employment earnings won't be included until we have reviewed your documents to verify your income. You have 21 days from your application date to submit these documents. Your weekly benefit amount will show the minimum weekly benefit amount for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance until we can verify your earnings.

Unless you indicate otherwise, you will receive your benefits on a prepaid debit card. If you would like your benefits deposited directly into your bank account, log into eServices to change how you receive your benefits payments.

We might:

- Send you a questionnaire and might also ask to speak to you by phone.
- Send you a written decision after we gather all the information we need. The letter will tell you whether you're eligible to receive unemployment benefits.

You must:

Start submitting weekly claims right away as instructed below under You must submit weekly claims

You must submit weekly claims to get paid

For unemployment purposes, a week is Sunday through Saturday. For every week you want to receive benefits, you must:

- Submit a weekly claim.
- Look for work (unless we tell you otherwise).
- Report your gross earnings and number of hours worked, even if you have not been paid yet.
- Report any sick pay, vacation pay, or holiday pay you have received from your employer.

There are two ways to submit weekly claims:

After a week ends, submit your weekly claim anytime between 12:01 a.m. Sunday and 11:59 p.m. Saturday.

- On eServices at esd.wa.gov. Find instructions online.
- By fax or U.S. mail.

Centralized Claims Processing Unit P.O. Box 14857 Olympia, WA 99214 0857 Fax: 877 280 6224

You must submit weekly claims even if you are:

- Waiting to hear if you are eligible for benefits.
- Expecting wages and hours to be added to your claim.
- Appealing a denial of benefits.

Your job search

To be eligible to receive unemployment benefits each week, you must be:

- Able to work.
- Available for work.
- Making a reasonable effort to return to work.

NOTE:

We adopted temporary Emergency Rules in response to COVID 19 that make work search activities optional at this time. You may choose to look for work, but it is not a requirement.

You must keep a written log of your job search activities. Read the Handbook for Unemployed Workers at esd.wa.gov/handbook to find out what to include in your job search log. We recommend you use the blank log at esd.wa.gov/job search log. You also can report your job search activities when you file your weekly claim via eServices at esd.wa.gov, but you still must keep a written log.

Pandemic Unemployment Claim Determination

We have determined:

- You may receive up to $235 each week you are eligible for unemployment benefits.
- Your benefit year is Feb 2 2020 to Dec 26 2020.
- · We may need to adjust the amount based on a number of factors.

This notification is not an approval or denial of benefits. It is a statement of how much you may receive as long as you otherwise qualify.

The amount you may get each week (called your weekly benefit amount) is based on the wages you received during the most recent completed tax year. This period is called your base year.

How to request an adjustment

If any information looks wrong or is missing, call the claims center between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday at 800-318-6022, if you need help.

Be sure to continue to file your weekly claims, even if you are waiting for an answer from us.

Anytime there is an adjustment to your determination, we will send you a Redetermination of Unemployment Claim.

If you have a hearing or speech impairment and need to call us, use the Washington Relay Service at 711.

For more information about the appeal process, refer to the Appeals section of the Handbook for Unemployed Workers. Call the Claims Center at 800-318-6022 if you need help.

If you file an appeal, continue to file your weekly claim each week you want to receive benefits.

Subject: Sick Pay Information

I wanted to clear up the confusion regarding the sick pay I received from my employer at Japonessa Seattle LLC. I have attached the paystub which I received payment on March 27th in my bank account for the amount of $154.73. These hours reflect only the week of March 21st. I did not receive sick pay the week of March 28th so I should receive the full unemployment insurance of $235 for the week of March 28th. I believe you would deduct the $154.73 from the unemployment insurance I would have received for the week of March 21st.

Both weeks (21st of March and 28th of March) are currently pending and under review regarding payment.

Please let me know if you have any further questions. I was confused regarding the sick pay in this instance and was not sure what week my employer reported for the sick pay until I received notice this morning.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter. I know you guys are slammed.

Dear MCKEEZI BARRAZA,

Read these job search requirements carefully. If you don't follow these instructions, we may deny your unemployment benefits.

Look for suitable work

For each week you want to receive unemployment benefits, you must look for suitable work. Suitable work is a job in an occupation that is in line with your prior training, work experience and education unless your regular work does not exist in your labor market. If this work is not available in your labor market area, then suitable work is a job you have the physical and mental ability to perform.

Our records show you are now required to make an active search for work.

Each week, you must:

- Make at least one employer contact;
- Participate in at least one approved job search activity at your local WorkSource office; or
- Complete a combination of one employer contact and job search activity at WorkSource.

Record job search activities

Read the Handbook for Unemployed Workers at esd.wa.gov/handbook to find out what to include in your job search log. We recommend you use the blank log at esd.wa.gov/job-search-log. In addition, you can report your job search activities when you file your weekly claim via eServices at esd.wa.gov.

Check with WorkSource on in-person job search activities

Note that not all in-person activities at your WorkSource office are approved for job search purposes. Check with your local WorkSource office to find out which in-person job search activities are approved.

Search more than 60,000 Washington jobs on WorkSourceWA.com. Visit WorkSource for free employment workshops and expert job hunting advice.

Read the Handbook for Unemployed Workers at esd.wa.gov to find everything you need to know about benefits, including training for a new career.

Tell the truth

Providing false information on your job search log is fraud. If you commit fraud, you may have to repay unemployment benefits and pay additional penalties.

Keep your job search log

Don't send us your job search log unless we ask for it. We may ask to see your job search log at any time. You must keep it at least until Jan 25 2021 or 30 days after you stop receiving benefits, whichever is later.

If you don't have your job search log when we ask for it or if it's incomplete, we may deny your benefits. You may have to repay any benefits you have received.
